

A Level Private School

A Level Private School - MDIS College, an established private school in Singapore that offers Preparatory Courses for the Singapore-Cambridge General Certificate of Education (Ordinary Level) and (Advanced Level) is a wholly owned subsidiary of the Management Development Institute of Singapore (MDIS). Taking your GCE A Level. ... The Preparatory Course for Singapore-Cambridge General Certificate Of Education (Advanced Level) Examination conducted by SmartLab Education Private School is offered to Singapore Citizens and Singapore Permanent Residence only. What the full-time course includes. Want to retake your exams, or enrol for an additional O Level or A Level? Join SmartLab Education Private School on our comprehensive Preparatory Course for Singapore-Cambridge General Certificate Of Education (Ordinary Level) Examination or Preparatory Course for Singapore-Cambridge General Certificate Of Education (Advanced Level) Examination. Private schools are one of three types of school in Australia, the other two being government schools (state schools) and religious. Whilst private schools are sometimes considered "public" schools (as in the Associated Public Schools of Victoria), the term "public school" is usually synonymous with a government school.